

2009 Miling School awards

MILING Primary School held its school awards night on Wednesday of last week.

The students sang Christmas songs and the two classes combined to perform a play called "An Aussie Christmas".

Mr Paul White, the P and C president thanked all school community members for the help throughout the year, and presented each student with a book for their "fantastic efforts"

Mr White also addressed outgoing staff including Mrs Fiona Pattison, Mrs Jaylee Tonkin, Mrs Hilary Dickins and Mrs Amy

Henderson.

Special guests Fiona Pattison, Brian Ellis MLC, Des Seymour and Germaine Seymour presented the students with the individual book prizes.

The winners for these awards were –

Junior Sport Star - Jack Ellis; Senior Sport Star - Ellie Pearson, Science Awards - Ryan Hewson and Ailsa Waddell; Junior Art Award - Arizona Galbraith; Senior Art Award - Ailsa Waddell; Moora Fine Arts Society Scholarship - Andrew Waddell; Senior Academic - Tyson Galbraith;

Junior Academic - Justin Dennis; Music Award- Sarah Dennis; Junior Citizenship - Jack Ellis; Senior Citizenship - Courtney Large; Junior Endeavour- Chelsea White and Senior Endeavour - Sarah Dennis.

Tyson Galbraith & Ryan Hewson were the two students who graduated from Primary School this year. Tyson Galbraith will be attending Wesley College and hopes to pursue a career in the airforce and Ryan Hewson will be attending Guildford Grammar and hopes to become a welder or engineer.

Hoorah: Graduating students Tyson Galbraith and Ryan Hewson

Award winners: Andrew Waddell (left), Arizona Galbraith, Ellie Pearson, Tyson Galbraith (standing) Courtney Large, Ryan Hewson (standing), Ailsa Waddell, Sarah Dennis, Chelsea White and Jack Ellis
Absent Justin Dennis.